Making the Shortlist—Crushing the Interview: Keys to Securing Your First Academic Position

Wednesday

Nov. 2

Location:
Student
Community
Center-Room D

This lunch-and-learn will empower participants with the knowledge, skills and best practices needed to navigate the academic interview process from start to finish. They will learn skill-building answers to key questions: What does it take to make the “short list”? What are search-committees looking for? What skills are needed to make the in-person interview successful? They will learn how to (1) Prepare an application that can help you make the short list; (2) Prepare for the demands and expectations of the in-person interview; (3) Effectively follow-up post-interview, and respond to the offer.

- Presenters: Karen McDonald, Professor, Chemical Engineering, and Faculty Director, UC Davis ADVANCE; Raymond L. Rodríguez, Professor, Molecular and Cellular Biology
- Audience: Postdoctoral Scholars and Graduate Students
- Please register by October 21, 2016: <http://advancelunchseries2nov2016.eventbrite.com>
