Social Science Mission

To conduct empirical, qualitative research that ...

- 1) identifies the personal and institutional factors influencing the career paths of Latina STEM scholars in academia.
- 2) informs the UC Davis ADVANCE program initiatives.
- 3) contributes to the literature explaining the under-representation of Latinas in STEM.

Study Cohorts

- 1. The President's Postdoctoral Fellowship Program (PPFP), 1988-present:
  - Total sample size of 537
  - 58 of the 537 fellows are Latina
  - 23 of the 58 Latina fellows are in STEM (10 interviewed)
  - 35 of the 58 Latina fellows are non-STEM (9 SBS interviews)
- 2. CAMPOS Faculty Scholars 2014-2015
  - Sample size of 6 (all interviewed)
- 3. Latina STEM scholars nationwide, in and outside academia

Methodology

In-depth, semi-structured interviews

"Grounded theory" approach to qualitative analysis

 Narrative representation of themes and patterns

 Connections and additions to existing literatures

Interview Themes

- Early childhood experiences (home, school, neighborhood)
- Mentoring
- Structural and programmatic supports
- Role of family in pathway
- Work-life balance
- Conflicts/challenges
- Resilience
- Positionality

childhood • role of family • school

work/life balance • challenges • reslience

Mentorship Across the Lifespan

Family • school • college • grad school • PPFP • employment

Programmatic Supports

E.g., MARC, MBRS, Bridge Programs, UC-TAP, UC-TAG, Ford Foundation, PPFP

Generally they work and are effective

They are especially crucial for the most disadvantaged

They often work in conjunction with mentoring

They are not a panacea
